Guyana

The offshore exploration success led by ExxonMobil is likely to lead to strong growth opportunities over the next decade.

Suriname

Following the success in Guyana, we see strong growth opportunities for our Subsea product group as exploration continues.

Argentina

The acceleration of unconventional drilling in-country has allowed Hunting Titan to increase international sales in line with our strategy.

Brazil

With a sales presence and a legal entity being established we will be able to participate in large tenders incountry.

- Strong tender activity across region driving opportunities in OCTG, well intervention and well testing.
- Bahrain, Iraq, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia all seeing strong growth in activity.
- Perforating Systems sales also to accelerate as unconventional resource development increases.
- Organic Oil Recovery also to grow robustly.
- India joint venture exploring east coast facility to access KG basin exploration.
- OCTG opportunities opening in West Africa following success in Gabon in 2024.
- Subsea closely monitoring exploration success in Namibia as projects move to development phase.

Summary

- 2024 another strong year of growth in revenue and profits.
- Hunting 2030 Strategy on track, given the milestones achieved in the year.
- c.$350 million of liquidity including c.$100 million of cash balances provides significant resources for acquisitions.
- 2025 guidance indicates a further year of good growth.
